Invincible Love, Invisible War: God's Plan To Win Your Spiritual Battles 2019-10-02

if life feels like a battle it s because it is our victory in christ is a present assured reality but until this life is over our fight against sin and its dark champion satan continues while this war is invisible the casualties are real but our great defender jesus shields us with his indestructible love learn about the character of god in this truth saturated study and see how his power and love help us fight the battle of sin that we face each day the bible is not only history it is his story although the bible is about him it is also about us the objects of his affection therefore in addition to god s love we were confronted with our wars with sin satan and the world s influence even though the bible was written over a period of about 1 500 years by over forty authors there is a unity that can only be explained as supernatural there is a consistant message that god loves us and that although life is a series of battles he desires for us to live in victory this study presents the big picture of god s love and his plan to give you a future and a hope it also gives a biblical perspective on the battles we face as you work through each lesson savor the goodness and greatness of god knowing he can be your sovereign king your wisdom your judge your savior your teacher and your victorious king discover if god loves me why is life such a battle are there answers for today in the word is there ever an end to the war can i have a victorious warrior this dynamic six week teaching study breaks down the bible into six manageable divisions and provides the big picture of sin and salvation along with tools to help you stand firm in the face of temptation and fear confusion and loss this study is ideal for small groups or community groups summer studies or any short term study time frame it works well for men s ministry women s ministry and discipleship settings
