000000 2010-03-21 Polar Adventure is about getting results from limited resources, motivating teams to higher levels of performance and maintaining optimism in fast-changing environments. With over two decades of experience at transforming individuals into record-breaking teams, Sean has unparalleled insights into what it takes to build and sustain high performance, combining "on the ice" knowledge with experiences from an earlier career as an officer in the elite Royal Marines and holding commercial positions in senior leadership roles. Sean has a genuine understanding of the challenges facing leaders. Unlike other leadership books that are big on theory, Sean shares experiences of what really works through practical, tried and tested insights packed full with tangible and inspirational lessons that are invaluable to all fellow adventurers operating in today's challenging business environment.

Comprehensive Calendar of Bicentennial Events 2017-06-01 Since its inception as an institutionalized discipline in the United States during the 1980s, performance studies has focused on the interdisciplinary analysis of a broad spectrum of cultural behaviours, including theatre, dance, folklore, popular entertainments, performance art, protests, cultural rituals and the performance of self in everyday life. Performance Studies in Canada brings together a diverse group of scholars to explore the national emergence of performance studies as a field in Canada. To date, no systematic attempt has been made to consider how this methodology is being taught, applied and rethought in Canadian contexts and Canadian performance studies scholarship remains largely unacknowledged within international discussions about the discipline. This collection fills this gap by identifying multiple origins of performance studies scholarship in the country and highlighting significant works of performance theory and history that are rooted in Canadian culture. Essays illustrate how specific institutional conditions and cultural investments, indigenous, francophone, multicultural and more, produce alternative articulations of performance and reveal national identity as a performative construct. A state-of-the-art work on the state of the field, Performance Studies in Canada foregrounds national and global performance knowledge to invigorate the discipline around the world.
