Caring Confrontations for Education and Democracy

2021-11-30

caring confrontations for education and democracy makes a compelling case for redirecting current practices of education to focus on being educated rather than having an education the book offers a detailed analysis of how an education for democracy must encourage commitment to important ideals and strengthen the vulnerabilities of people which make them easily manipulated by politicians and the media it addresses the need for education that focusses on people s mode of being so that in addition to becoming knowledgeable and skilful people develop the disposition that is more appropriate for democratic living through embodying this approach of authentic spiritual growth through education this book explores the idea of caring confrontations and critical reflection to enable personal change and growth providing a thoughtful analysis of the role of education in democracy the book will be of great interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of philosophy of education educational theory and democratic education

Compassionate Confrontation

2007-07

compassionate confrontation is a compelling look at the cultural challenges facing the twenty first century christian written in a practical and direct style the book presents a biblical alternative to the take back the culture and stay out of the culture agendas that are advocated by well meaning christians it dares christians to take god s truth into the public arena where absolutes and truth have been replaced by speculations and lies full of battlefield stories and biblical references the book presents a balanced look at the american culture and the biblical role of the church within it the author calls for christians to compassionately confront a dying world with the life giving truth found in god s word and demonstrated in the lives of true christians his passionate logical exhortation to the church is based on biblical truth shaped by the teachings of francis schaeffer and tested in the trenches of experience jim evans has been married to his wife joan for thirty one years he is the father of four grown children and has two grandchildren he received his undergraduate degree from lancaster bible college and his graduate degree from palm beach atlantic university he has established two churches directed a mission to haiti and is currently engaged in conference speaking and assisting national preachers in africa india and eastern europe he has also served as a christian lobbyist in new york worked as police liaison for the anti abortion group operation rescue was imprisoned for opposing abortion testified in federal courts and debated with opponents of christianity on television radio and secular university campuses over thirty years of ministry experience in the streets courtrooms prisons and churches of america give him an unusual qualification to speak to the issues confronting the church in twenty first century america

Handling Verbal Confrontation

one of the major inadequacies of our culture is our inability to verbally confront one another it kills interpersonal relationships it is a time bomb within families it causes low productivity stress headaches and increases our consumption of alcohol and drugs very few even recognize it as a problem and even fewer know what to do about it why because we were never taught how to confront properly and effectively but our success depends on these skills the art of handling verbal confrontation guides the reader in how to approach verbally address issues and face others successfully without fear these skills belong to the inner tactical strategy of facing yourself facing the issue and facing the other person it is a key to spiritual empowerment

no statement except one can be made with which all philosophers would agree the exception is this statement itself the disagreement has the advantage that it gets all the proposals out into the open where they can be examined but it has the disadvantage that the cogency of any one philosophy must rely entirely upon that wide public which is unprepared to deal with it fortunately ethics has a more immediate appeal than some other branches of philosophy yet the history of the topic gives no indication that this circumstance has had the happy results we might have expected one peculiarity of ethics is that its problems are rarely settled on its own grounds ethical problems are for the most part referred to socially established moralities and moralities are socially established not on the basis of philosophy but rather by some sponsoring insti or politics such establishments however tuition usually religion depend on the prior preparation of ethical proposals by philosophers for it stands to reason that an ethics cannot be socially established if there is no ethics to establish thus philosophers provide the justification for socially established moralities while seeming not to do so
