Ward's Automotive Yearbook 1994 the symposium xenophon xenophon the athenian was born 431 b c he was a pupil of socrates he marched with the spartans and was exiled from athens sparta gave him land and property in scillus where he lived for many years before having to move once more to settle in corinth he died in 354 b c the symposium records the discussion of socrates and company at a dinner given by callias for the youth autolykus dakrynos believed that plato knew of this work and that it influenced him to some degree when he wrote his own symposium entertainment at the dinner is provided by the syracusan and his three performers their feats of skill thrill the attendants and serve as points of conversation throughout the dialogue much of the discussion centers on what each guest is most proud of all their answers are playful or paradoxical socrates for one prides himself on his knowledge of the art of match making xenophon consciously and carefully chooses his characters in this dialogue those who attend the symposium 422 b c are all gentlemen kaloikagathoi and are united by their status later however their disagreements will lead them to conflict the contemporary readers of the symposium would have been familiar with each characters history and would have recognized the ironic circumstances of the dialogue socrates the main character in the work socrates drives and controls the conversation at the symposium he values the craft of match making because a good match maker can arrange suitable marriages and friendship between cities xenophon begins the dialogue by saying that he thinks the deeds of men not only in their serious times but also in their playful times are worth mentioning he expresses his desire to explain the deeds on such a particular occasion at which he himself was present xenophon s presence at the symposium is doubted since he would have been too young to attend at the time after they finished eating an entertainer from syracuse who had been invited by kallias came with his entourage of performers including a girl good at flute playing a girl who danced spectacularly and a very pretty boy who played the cithara and danced 2 1 the flute player and the boy play their instruments together in a performance which pleases socrates he praises kallias for the dinner and the entertainment which he provided kallias then suggests that the party should enjoy some perfumes but socrates refused saying that men ought to smell of gymnastic exercise and the men with whom they associate this leads to a discussion of the teachability of virtue 2 6 which socrates suggests they drop because it is controversial the dancing girl is about to perform with the flutist 2 7
